

Kenneth Haben

Kenneth Haben retired as a Sergeant from the police department with over 38 years of service. Currently works for the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority as a Public Arbitrator. During his time with the department he was assigned to the Financial Investigations Unit supervising the Financial Crimes Squad and later to the Narcotics Division supervising the Money Laundering and Asset Forfeiture Squad. He was on the board of the National White Collar Crime Center representing the Southwest region and was a Certified Fraud Examiner.

In addition to his duties with the department, Mr. Haben was the previous Vice Chairman of the Dallas Police and Fire Pension board. He was also the Chairman of the 457 Deferred Comp board and the Vice Chairman of the 401k board for the City of Dallas. He remains an active member of the National Association of Government Defined Contribution Administrators (NAGDCA).

Ken has a BA degree in Political Science/Public Administration from Slippery Rock State College and was in the first graduating class of the Law Enforcement Management Institute of Texas, Leadership Command College. He is a Trustee with the Badge of Honor Memorial Foundation and a Life Member of the International Police Association.