In the event of an Active or Deferred Vested member's death, the Pension System will determine who are the member's Qualified survivors. A Qualified survivor is defined as a person who is eligible to receive death benefits after the death of the member. This includes the spouse to whom the member was married before he/she left active service and was continuously married until the member passed away. Also, included are children under 19 or who have a disability, who were born or adopted before the member left active service. In some cases, dependent parents may be considered as well.

Please list Qualified survivors below:

Name of Spouse	Date of Marriage	Date of Birth
		SS#
Name of Child or Dependent Parent	Sex	Date of Birth
Name of Child or Dependent Parent	Sex	Date of Birth

Attach additional sheets if necessary to list all Qualified survivors.
